
WE AGNOSTICS

OKINAWA

Sunday Morning 9:00 A.M.

Sunset Beach in Mihama

This weekly meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous maintains a tradition of free expression and conducts a meeting where everyone is free to express any doubts or disbelief they may have, to share their own form of spiritual experience, their search for it, or their rejection of it.

We neither endorse nor oppose any form of religion or atheism. Our only wish is to assure alcoholics that they can find sobriety in A.A. without having to accept anyone else's beliefs or deny their own

We meet - rain or shine !

DIRECTIONS

From Highway 58:

- (1) Turn into American Village, directly across from Camp Lester Gate 2 (Next to McDonald's)
- (2) Continue on this street—past the Ferris Wheel on the right and through the intersection until you come to the Red Lobster Restaurant on your left
- (3) From the front of Red Lobster, walk straight to the beach, past shops & restrooms on your right until you come to the covered area (pictured) next to the seawall
